The Blanco patriots appear to have a better provision of dynamite for the destruction of defenceless Railway bridges, than of ammunition for their Remingtons for the extermination of their obnoxious countrymen; and in the former operation they make more noise and incur less risk. A telegram from Laureles of yesterday's date says the railway bridge at Tranqueras was blown up an 8.17 p.m.; this bridge was situated seventy-five kilometers north of San Fructuoso and forty four south of Rivera. It had a span of fifteen metres.

Great sympathy is felt for Consul Baker by his many friends here, and all sincerely hope for his speedy recovery.

The well known, highly esteemed, wealthy Brazilian "hacendado" Don Serafin J. Medeiros, aged fifty, last night, probably in a fit of madness, murdered his own wife Doña Amabilia N. de Medeiros, aged 55, and his invalid daughter Celina, aged 20, when both were in bed and asleep. He then sent two Smith and Wesson balls through his own brain and was unconscious until he died about 4 p.m. The scene of this horrible tragedy was their handsome residence No. 168 Calle Cuareim, where they lived in great comfort and apparent happiness.

The distinguished agricultural Engineer Don Domingo Simois, Director of the school at Mendoza, is to be married soon to the charming Miss Lucia Lemos of this city, sister of Don Enrique the spirited writer of La Razon.

The Jubilee feast at the grand palatial central station, last night, was an immense success. Over a thousand persons were present, little and big, and every one pleased, not excepting your correspondent "the Briton". No war news, or likely to be very soon.

Cuban rebels to shoot Spanish soldiers.

London, 23rd—The Queen was not in the least fatigued by yesterday's ceremonies. Lords Derby and Hope were thrown from their horses in the procession, but were only slightly hurt. Out of 1000 accidents, only 200 people had to be taken to the hospitals. Some twenty soldiers got sunstroke. The only disagreeable feature in the festivites was the manifestation in Dublin.

Rome, 23rd—The official organs deny the rumour that Negus Menelik demands twenty millions of lire for the release of the Italian prisoners in his power.

New York, 23rd—The latest news about Cuba is that the Revolutionary Committee here have ordered the rebels to shoot all Spanish soldiers and peasants, in arms against them, that fall into their hands!!!

Budapesth, 23rd—The rain has been so heavy for several days past all over Hungary that great damage to the crops is anticipated.

Rome, 23rd—The German Ambassador, Von Bülow, left to-day for Berlin. It is thought certain that Emperor William will at once him appoint Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Havana, 23d—The pardon of 130 political prisoners has created a very good impression. Public work will be undertaken on a grand scale in the provinces of the Havana, Pinar del Rio, Matanzas and Santa Clara to give work to the unemployed.

Madrid, 23d—The Imparcial attacks the Government bitterly for having given another order for a cruiser to Ansaldo of Genoa, as the ironclad Cristoforo Colombo bought from that firm is found to be a very defective ship.

Madrid 23rd—There were serious riots in Oviedo to-day owing to the tax on food, which the people refuse to pay. Two workmen were killed and five wounded in a fight with the police.

Rome, 23rd—In the Deputies to-day, Imbriani violently attacked the Turks for their outrages in Thessaly. The under Secretary for Foreign Affairs answered that the Italian Ambassador in Constantinople had been ordered to join his colleagues in protesting against these outrages.

London, 23rd—The Lords and Commons went to Buckingham Palace to-day and handed Her Majesty the congratulatory Addresses voted by them. An enormous crowd of the populace cheered the cortége on its way to the Palace.

London, 23rd.—The Right Honrble Court Gully, Speaker of the House of Commons, read to-day amongst other telegrams of congratulation one from President Uriburu. After the reading of the telegram Mr. Arthur Balfour and Sir William Vernon Harcourt expressed the pleasure felt by the English people at the part the leading nations took in the fetes.

London, 23rd.—The city was profusely illuminated last night. Enormous crowds promenaded through the streets admiring the illuminations and decorations visible everywhere. The fetes will last until next Sunday. One of the most remarkable features of them was the dinner to 300,000 poor people presided over by the Princess of Wales.

Liverpool, 23rd—Argentine frozen meat was sold here to-day at the following prices: mutton at 3¼ pence per pound, beef at 2½ pence to 3¾ pence per pound.

London, 23rd—Telegrams from the garrison of Puerto Principe announce that it is besieged by rebels under General Calixto Garcia, who has a number of field guns run into positions overlooking the town. The rebel leader evidently intends to bombard the place until the garrison yields. General Weyler is now marching on Puerto Principe with a strong body of troops.

Alexandria, 23rd—It is asserted here that General Kitchener has received orders to postpone the renewal of the Sudan campaign, but the reason for such a decision is not known.

London, 23rd — The Speaker of the House of Commons read to-night the message received from Her Majesty in reply to the congratulatory address presented by the House.

London, 23rd—This afternoon Her Majesty reviewed 10,000 children belonging to the National Schools. They sang "God save the Queen" amid frantic cheering from the vast crowd that was present. Commemorative medals, sweets and toys were subsequently distributed among the little ones.

Her Majesty returned to-night to Windsor Castle.

Athens, 23rd—A rumour is current that the treaty of peace with Turkey will probably be signed on Saturday. The war indemnity to be paid by Greece has, it is said, been reduced to 70 million drachmai.

THE FUTURE OF ARGENTINA

We have received by the mail—at a moment when we had given up all hope of hearing from the American commissioners—a very neat pamphlet containing an account of the travels of those gentlemen through Argentina, Uruguay, and Brazil. Like our own handbook, the brochure is brimful of statistical facts and figures on which we shall dwell in other issues. For the present what most interests us is the horoscope cast by the Commissioners. It is good for the mental health to occasionally see ourselves as others see us, and we gladly make room for these views, which, although the result of a flying visit, embody nevertheless the opinions of experienced and practical men. We extract as follows from the pamphlet:—

There is hardly a single country which is not now passing through great changes in its commercial relations with the outside world, but there is probably none where commercial development and changes are more evident and the future more promising than in Argentina. In 1860 compatively an unknown and insignificant country, it has now become an important one with 4,000,000 people, with evidence of progress on every side in the development of new industries, the increase in population and trade, and the establishment of new means of communication.

Its importance is not so much due to its population, which is small, nor to its area, although it is ten times greater than Great Britain, as to its financial and commercial relations with the great nations of Europe, and to the leading part it must inevitably take in South America in absorbing surplus European capital and population.

In the raising of cattle and sheep Argentina can doubtless excel the world. A temperate and delightful climate, the rich soil of the level and unwooded plains, perfectly adapted to stock raising and agriculture, will in the near future make Argentina one of the most important factors in feeding and clothing Europe. As an agricultural and pastoral country Argentina, in many respects, excels in natural conditions every other country in the world, and with the aid of foreign capital, the improved farm machinery of today, and modern means of communication and transportation, her development will be even more marked and rapid than that of our own marvelous West. Up to the present, the resources of the country have been barely tested; the soil has been turned over only here and there, and has yielded a wealth of millions upon millions, which has staggered not only the old nations of Europe but our own couniry.

As is the case with every new country which experiences a too rapid prosperity, Argentina has passed through a disastrous period of financial depression. In 1889 the country became for a short time a scene of a veritable "South Sea Bubble." Every kind of speculation was rife. The great financial houses of Europe, such as the Barings and others, combined with many greedy English speculators, literally poured money into the Argentine National and Provincial Governments. While a considerable portion of this money went into the pockets of the middle men, there are but few comparatively undeveloped countries which have had so much capital freely invested for railway construction, public works, and for the opening up of new districts. Between the years 1881 and 1892 the Federal Government received nearly $300,000,000 directly. It has been estimated that in all some $1,500,000,000 English capital has been invested in Argentina, much of which is now unremunerative and in jeopardy.

Our Commission, during its visit in Argentina, observed many circumstances which tended to show that the business of the country is constantly improving. The credit of the country is rapidly regaining the position it held prior to the financial crisis, as is shown by the heavy decline in gold premiums. Men who have been long resident in Argentina expressed to us the opinion that they never knew a time when business looked so sound. The total volume of foreign business for the first six months of 1896 amounted to $121,100,000. This is considerably larger than in any of the corresponding periods for the three previous years. The most marked advance was in imports, which figured $51,700,000. This is $8,700,000 more than for the first half of 1895. One of the most significant signs of better times is the importation of railway material, which, during the first half of 1896, amounted to over $1,000,000. The indications are that this class of imports can be greatly increased in the near future, as considerable railway extension is contemplated. The importation of agricultural implements has also increased considerably during this period, as well as dry goods and hardware.

First and foremost among the drawbacks to American commerce with Argentina I would place the character of the population. The amalgamation of races in the Argentine is a counterpart to that of the United States, with this difference, that while the civilization of this country is Anglo-Saxon, there is going on in Argentine a welding together of nationalities which are purely Latin. The civilization of Argentina is wholly European, and this fact must always greatly influence her trade relations. The immigration is being restricted in the United States, and there is no country open to this immigration which can hold out so many inducements as Argentina.

As will be seen from the statements on immigration, the great bulk of the population has recently come from Latin countries of Europe, principally Italy. Their tastes and inclinations are all for goods similar to those used at home. They are cheap in quality and low in price. This fact, I think, explains better than anything else the decrease in the exports of Great Britain from 43 per cent. in 1884 to 27½ per cent. in 1895, as also the increase of the German and Italian trade, which is principally in the cheap and common lines. Germany increased from 7 per cent. of the total in 1885 to 15 per cent. in 1895, and Italy made even much greater increase, from 4 per cent. in 1885 to 12 per cent. in 1895.

The second great disadvantage that Americans encounter is the fact that Europe is the consumer of Argentine products. The great bulk of her exports are taken by France, Germany and England and other European countries. The Argentine exports to Europe are 85 per cent. of the whole; the imports from Europe are nearly 90 per cent. of the whole. How do the trade relations between Argentina and the United States stand? About 4,000,000 Argentines consume $10,000,000 worth of North American goods; 70,000,000 North Americans consume $5,000,000 worth of Argentine products. Let us take, for instance, the trade relations of the Argentine with the United States for 1894. Argentina exported to the United States $5,300,000 worth of goods; Argentine imported from the United States in the same year $10,100,000 worth of goods.

This great difference was materially altered in 1895, owing to the heavy imports of wool into this country from the Argentine. The exports to the United States were $8,950,000, and the imports were $6,700,000.

A considerable amount of the exports from Argentina to Europe eventually find their way to the United States, principally wool, and, to some extent, wood products, such as quebracho, a tanning material.

The amount of Argentine wool bought by American manufacturing concerns at the auction sales of Europe is estimated to be considerable. There is no reason why all our importations of Argentine wool should not be direct.

The third great drawback is the fact that Europe has invested such enormous sums of money in the Argentine. Not only has there been the vast amount of capital invested by Europe in public improvements, but European banking institutions are everywhere throughout the country.

The fourth obstacle is the lack of steamship service and banking facilities. As a customer in Argentine general trade, the United States is insignificant, standing only 7 per cent. of the total, against Great Britain with 27½ per cent.; France, 15 per cent.; Germany, 17 per cent., and Belgium, 11 per cent. It will be seen from the table of exports of this country to Argentina that the principal articles are pine and petroleum. The indications are that the trade in lumber can be very greatly increased, especially if the Argentina can be prevailed upon to lower its import duty on this article. It is estimated by competent individuals in Argentina, that if the import duty were reduced 50 per cent. the importations would increase fully 100 per cent.

Yesterday's telegrams bring the most glowing and enthusiastic accounts of the Jubilee Fêtes in London, and indeed all the principal cities of the world where Englishmen reside. The morning of the 22nd in London broke over the great metropolis in all the splendour of summer weather. Over two hundred thousand people had passed the whole night walking about the streets, preferring to deprive themselves of a rest rather than miss taking up their place in some street in which the procession could be viewed. The public buildings and private houses along the route were almost invisible, such was the profusion of flags, bunting of all kinds and even floral decorations.

Throughout the section of the city North of the Thames, including the West End, the decorations outdid in richness and splendor the magnificent display to be seen in other parts.

The procession began punctually at 11 o'clock, Her Majesty entering the state carriage accompanied by the Dowager Empress of Germany and followed by other carriages with all the members of the Royal Family, Representatives of the Foreign Powers, Diplomatic Corps and thousands of distinguished visitors. The departure of Her Majesty from Buckingham Palace was made known to the whole vast metropolis by the firing of guns and the ringing of bells, while the genuine British cheer which broke from more than a hundred thousand throats rent the air like a clap of thunder. Men women and children took up the cry from afar and appeared never to tire waving handkerchiefs, hats and sticks. The spectacle was a most imposing one, and will never be forgotten. Her Majesty was visibly moved by this unequalled demonstration of love and respect from so many hundreds of thousands of subjects and repeatedly bowed to the enormous crowd which stretched away for miles. Balconies, windows and house-tops were one mass of human heads. Bands struck up the Royal Anthem and thousands sang the well known words. The Indian Princes who went over to take part in the fetes attracted great attention on account of the gorgeous way in which they were dressed. The Prince of Wales, Duke of Cambridge, and Field Marshal Lord Wolseley rode alongside Her Majesty's carriage attired in gorgeous uniforms. The Princess of Wales was also much admired in the magnificent costume she wore. General Hagron, one of the French special Envoys and General Miles, the Commander General of the United States army who rode in the same carriage, were given a position of honor and were loudly cheered by the crowd. The religious ceremony at St Paul's Cathedral consisted of a grand Te Deum at which His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury officiated. The ceremony only lasted a short time, and at 1.45 p.m. Her Majesty returned to Buckingham Palace. Not a single accident occurred. The crowd behaved admirably.

The telegrams from St. Petersburg, Paris, Vienna and other cities report that the Jubilee Fetes there were carried out on a grand scale and consisted in thanksgiving services in the churches, receptions and banquets at Embassies, etc. Turn we again to London.

A few minutes before Her Majesty left Buckingham Palace, the Lady Mayoress of London presented her with a magnificent bouquet of orchids. The Emperor of Germany's Representative rode at the head of a detachment of the Imperial Guards mounted on splendid chargers. The Indian troops and those from other colonies also took part in the procesion. Amongst those who drove in the procession were Princess Alice of Albany, Princess Elsa of Battenberg, Princess Victoria, The Duke of Connaught, Princess Beatrice of Coburg, Duke of Albany, Duke and Duchess of York, Prince Henry of Prussia, Prince and Princess of Naples. After all the carriages came a detachment of Life Guards, followed by a number of Foreign Princes, all of whom rode on horseback. A Guard of Honour, comprising 22 Hindoo officers, rode immediately behind. The Postilions of the Royal Carriage did not wear the usual band of crape on their left arm, this being the first time they appeared without it since the death of the Prince Consort. Field Marshal Lord Roberts was everywhere received with tremendous enthusiasm and, with the exception of the Queen and the Royal Family, was the most cheered person in the procession.

Here in Buenos Aires the fetes were most brilliantly carried out under the able management of the Diamond Jubilee Committee. The banquet which took place in Messrs Funes and Lagos' auction mart was a tremendous success. The building was profusely decorated with English and Argentine flags interwoven. A band of music played choice pieces during the repast. The table was in the shape of a horse-shoe, and Dr. Carlos Pellegrini occupied the seat of honour, Mr. Bridgett H. M. B. Consul was in the chair, with Mr. Edward Casey on his right. When the Champagne began to flow Dr. Pellegrini rose and made an excellent speech during the course of which he dwelt on Her Majesty's glorious reign, its principal events and the way in which the British Empire had extended its territory and influence to all known parts of the world. Needless to say the distinguished speaker was loudly applauded all through. Messrs MacDonald, Charles Nelson and Perkins also spoke. Amongst those present we noticed Messrs. Cavanagh, Pruden, Ewart, Lagos, Schmid, Martin, Duggan, Castex, Stoppani, Bollini, Casey, Manson, Foster Harris, Green, Savage, Logan, Lean, MacDonald, Murray and Morin.

The Concert at the Pabellon was another success. The hall was tastefully decorated. The Hon. W.A.C. Barrington, British Minister, read the telegram sent to Her Majesty by her subjects in the Plate. The programme of the Concert went off splendidly in all its parts.

The English sports on the Palermo Cricket ground were also a great success. As also the Pic-nic. Then came the children's performance at the San Martin. The vast theatre was crammed from floor to ceiling. Frank Brown, the pet of all the little ones, had got up an excellent programme for the occasion. Each child on entering the theatre was presented with a large packet of sweets, and a ticket for the raffle of toys which took place during the course of the programme. The inimitable Frank distributed thousands of boxes of chocolate. The pantomime Cinderella was indeed a brilliant performance. The dresses of the children were most gorgeous. At the end of the performance Mr. Inglis Runciman presented Frank Brown with a gold medal given by a gentleman who refused to disclose his name. We must congratulate the Committee on the success of the entertainment, which provided such a lot of fun to young and old.

One of the most important items of Tuesday's celebration was the subscription breakfast given at Funes and Lagos's mart by the estancieros and leading cattle men in the Argentine Republic. The spacious premises were most artistically decorated with all the flags of the world. the Union Jack of course being most prominent. The table was arranged in horse-shoe fashion, some 180 of the most representative men in the live stock trade sitting down.

Our genial Consul Mr. Ronald Bridgett, took the chair at 12.30, Dr. Pellegrini sitting on his right. After a tip-top breakfast served by the Catalanes Restaurant, the Consul proposed in a royal manner the toast of the day, "Her Majesty, the Queen," Dr Pellegrini responding. Mr E. Casey proposed the health of the estancieros of the Argentine Republic, stating "Every country has some speciality amongst its products, something that is required by its neighbours, carried in railways and financed by bankers. Every country has its commercial mission, and the pleasing mission on the Argentine Republic is to feed the hungry. No country in the world can compete with this in the production of cheap food. In no other country can you grow an ox or a sheep and fatten them as cheaply as in Argentina. Nature has been too kind to us, and until lately we trusted a great deal to Providence, and neglected our live stock most shamefully. However, I am glad to say that lately we have set to in earnest and have made marvellous advance. The men who have been instrumental in effecting this transformation are around this table, the importers and exporters of live-stock, and I put the importers first, because without the import there would be no export. The Argentine Republic is fast taking the post of leader in meat export, having now gained the second for sheep and being a good second in cattle. This year we shall export over 2,500,000 sheep alive and dead, and this puts us 1st on the list. Those engaged at present in the cattle export trade are seriously handicapped by not being able to get cattle sufficiently fat for the English market, and I must request our estanciero friends, for their own sake to give us a chance. Green grass alone is not sufficient to turn out bullocks for the English market, it is only Ranch beef at best. If you cannot give some corn, give the 'novillo' a bit of hay in the winter: a bite of hay in winter for a bullock is as necessary as whisky is for a man; it gives tone to the system. Besides, feeding the animals makes them tame, a very important item. Now, gentlemen, we have the record for sheep, and I feel sure that before five years we shall have the record for cattle, and will keep it."

Speech followed speech, the cattle export industry being proposed by a French gentleman (whose name escapes our memory), in a very able manner. Furlotti, had a splendid band and gave the Argentine Hymn. God Save the Queen, St. Patrick's Day and Auld Lang Syne, in grand style. We noted the fine thoroughbred animals belonging to J. J. McLean, A. P. Higgs, Fabricantes Ingleses, Mr. Ewart and Mr. Sidey in the stalls.

On Tuesday the Argentine Senate paid graceful tribute to Her Majesty and the British people by suspending their sitting. The motion was proposed in eloquent terms by Dr. Pellegrini—who is half an Englishman by birth—and voted unanimously. Subsequently, General Roca, President of the House, sent the following telegram to "The President of the House of Commons" (the Speaker)

Buenos Aires, June 22nd.

"I have the pleasure to inform Y. E. that the Senate of the Argentine Nation has to-day suspended its sitting in homage to the British People and their most worthy Queen and Empress, Victoria.

Julio A. Roca

President of the Senate".

Nothwithstanding the attractions in other parts, an enormous crowd assembled on the Palermo Cricket ground Tuesrday to enjoy the Old English Sports. As early as half past ten, the people began to arrive, and at mid-day something like 2000 were on the ground. The splendid band belonging to the Police force was present, and during the day played some excellent music, which added considerably to the enjoyment of those present. In a large marquee, erected alongside the pavilion, sandwiches, cakes, tea, and any quantity of Pilsen and Quilmes beer, kindly sent by the managers of these two well known breweries, were served free. The sports commenced with a Foot-ball Match under Association Rules, which was won by a team representing Scotland, Ireland, and Wales that beat England by seven goals to nothing; the goals being kicked by W. Buchanan, Willie Stirling, and G. Leslie, (one each), and J.O. Anderson (four). The 100 yards foot race was won by W. Brunt, who just beat G. Mc Hardy on the post, but the winner gained at least two yards at the start. The 50 yards wheelbarrow race afforded considerable amusement, most of the competitors failing to reach the winning post. Eventually P. Mobini, and P. Moradi came in first, being followed very closely by Wellington and Brandinetti. The three-legged race also was productive of much fun, and was won by G. Mc Hardy and Yates, Wellington and Brandinetti being second. The Rugby Football Match was won by England and Ireland, against Scotland and Wales, the score being two goals and three tries, or 19 points against nothing. The Tug of War was productive of many splendid struggles, being eventually won by a team composed of men from the Rosario Railway extension works who beat a team from the Port Works.

At the conclusion of the sports, the Hon. W.A.C. Barrington presented the prizes, after which all present joined in singing the National Anthem, and giving three cheers for everybody and everything.

The Committee beg to thank the undersigned firms for following donations:—

Bieckert and Quilmes for beer.
J. Drysdale for sandwiches.
T. S. Boadle for tea.
Warden and Mc Callum for ginger ale.
Feeney for cheese.
Wilson and Nevin for sugar.

"The Britishers of the province of Santiago beg on this great day to assure Her Majesty's Minister of their constant loyalty and affection to their Queen."

The great success of these sports is undoubtedly due to energy of the executive Committee, who one and all worked very hard; viz.: Messrs W. J. Baikie, Percy Clarke, J.T. Darch, Juan Drysdale, H. M. Mills, Cecil Mc Kean, D.J. Stokes, R. A. Sumner, and H.H. Woodgate.

The concert given on Tuesday night in the Pavilion was undoubtedly one of the greatest patriotic festivals ever undertaken and carried out by the British community in Buenos Aires. The entire ground floor of the Pavilion was thrown open from end to end, and yet the space was hardly sufficient for the enormous crowd that assembled. The decorations were carried out in excellent taste, the Royal Arms, flanked with the English Standard facing the entrance, whilst the walls were covered with flags in all directions. Over the stage was a transparency "God save the Queen". The stage itself, together with a platform extending into the theatre, was occupied by the large chorus, whilst Prof. Pini's excellent orchestra occupied the floor of the theatre itself.

Proceedings began with the Argentine National Anthem, after which the Hon. W. A. C. Barrington addressed those assembled, as follows:—

"Fellow countrymen and friends. We are gathered together to celebrate the longest reign our country's history has known, and good cause have we to be thankful that such a sovereign as our venerated and beloved Queen should have been spared to occupy the throne for over two generations past. I need not dwell on the immense material progress, the steady developement of all our institutions, and the widespread benefits thereby secured to her subjects which have characterized the Queen's reign, but what we must all feel so strongly is the thorough sympathy with her people which Her Majesty has ever shown, her loyalty, I may say, to them, which has caused them in return to cherish such strong feelings of loyalty and love for her. News reaches us from home of the great manifestation of these feelings shown by those who have flocked from far and wide to join in the cheers with which our sovereign has been greeted to-day, and of messages which have poured in from all quarters of the earth to express the devotion of the millions who were with them in spirit."

He afterwards referred to the very cordial way in which the President and the people of the Republic had associated themselves with the manifestation, and of the specially sympathetic words which His Excellency had personally used, in speaking to him of the Queen.

Mr. Barrington concluded by reading the copy of the telegram sent in the name of all on the 19th inst, and at the end begged everyone to join in "God save the Queen".

The concert was then proceeded with, the orchestra playing "Jubilee Overture" (Weber,) "Tannhauser March" (Wagner), "Diamond Jubilee March" (Pini), "National Selection" (Baird), A selection from the "Gondoliers" and one from "Iolanthe." The vocal part consisted of the choruses "Ye mariners of England," "Men of Harlech" and "Rule Britannia" those present joining in the latter most lustily. Miss Reddall sang the beautiful Irish ballad "Come back to Erin" most exquisitely, always bearing in mind, like a true artist, that the simple melody required no addition in the way of fancy notes, and in consequence, received a most vociferous encore, which it was impossible to resist. Mrs. W. Bennett sang "Home Sweet Home" and Mr. W. Higgins sang the solos in "Auld lang Syne" but was considerably handicapped by the audience continuing the chorus when they should not have done so. The concert concluded by all present joining is "God save the Queen".

During the evening an excellent display of fireworks was given in the ground, one device "Victoria 1837-1897," being especially acceptable to all present.

The success of the concert was beyond doubt, and that it was so is due to the untiring efforts of Mr F. Chaussard, Hon. Sec. to the Buenos Aires Choral Union, who was been almost unassisted in carrying out the whole affair, and Mr. Cecil Mackean, who, as Business Manager, rendered most valuable aid.

The following is the text of the telegram, which we may notice was sent home by the Western and Brazilian Telegraph Co. and the Telegraph and Telefonic Co. free of charge.

On Jubilee Night the Salvation Army duly celebrated the illustrious event by giving an out and out, real, old English roast-beef and plum-pudding supper to the poor men in their establishment, 1562 Calle Pavon, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The dining hall was tastefully decorated with the British, Argentine and other flags, not forgetting the "Army's own" with General Booth's life sized photo thrown in as "yapa". The assembled guests, numbering over one hundred were perhaps as cosmopoliton a group as will adorn any of our Jubilee gatherings this week, even in such a city as Buenos Aires.

The English contingent, headed by our veteran friend Mr. John N. Clifford, whom we mentioned in our last issue, fully justified our comment, that although 72 years of age, he not only looked as straight, hale and hearty as a strong man of 50, physically, but displayed abundance of mental force by actually following up Captain Harrold's song "Three cheers for the Red. White and Blue" (to army words) by quoting from memory when called upon, the first verse and chorus of the grand old song in the original, and judging from the lively chatter during their dessert of biscuits, raisins, nuts and fruit, washed down by copious draughts of gaseous waters and lemonade neat. 'Twas indeed a merry party.

The Banquet was followed by what Salvationists call a good meeting, the chief characteristics of which are euphoniously known amongst our American cousins as 'Hot Stuff', or rather according to the staid and sober British Standard "Good stuff, all hot." This was presided over by Major Pearce assisted by the Head Quarter's staff, and ably seconded by the Captain, Lieutenants, and some of the soldiers of the local corps in Rivadavia, which for heartiness, vim, and brightness could scarcely be beaten even at the Argentine Pavilion. The programme was bright, crisp and varied, and like the singers, and speakers, not only national but cosmopolitan.

The Major in his opening speech, after referring to the remarkable incidents of Her Majesty's glorious reign, true to his Salvationist instincts remarked that amongst the most unique things of this unique reign was the rise, progress and present standing of the Salvation Army amongst the nations of the world; a fact not generally recognized by all Victorian writers, yet reserved for future historians.

As previously remarked, the vocal part of the programme was most varied, in fact sparkling, even if not viewed from a Salvation standpoint, and embraced, like the nationalities of the speakers and singers, songs in English, Spanish, German, and French. All, truly went with a real "go" from start to finish.

The proceedings terminated by all standing, and singing with true-hearted loyalty "God save the Queen".

About 200 sailors attended the Free Tea given under the auspices of the Sailors' Home at the Boca Mission Hall. The Hall was beautifully decorated with flags, etc., a large portrait of Her Majesty, with the motto "God Save the Queen," being a prominent feature. During the tea Mr. D. H. Perry played a selection of national airs which were much appreciated. Revs. J. W. Fleming, B.D., A. W. Greenman, D.D., and T. Wilkes were present. Mr. Vere Caldwell contributed flowers for the decorations, and Captain Griffiths, "Cape Race," kindly lent the bunting.

Cordoba,
June 19th, 1897.

To the Editor of the STANDARD,—

Dear Sir,—

I notice in your columns the noble preparations the English community are making in Buenos Aires for the 22nd inst.

Here in Cordoba are no less than 200 English, and the way in which they are going to work is, I regret to say, anything but satisfactory. Plenty of subscriptions being got up, but with what object I cannot say; this grand event will pass here as any other sort of day—in smoke. I have noticed the English lack friendship, and the only amusement which they have found to pay best is making scandal and picking their neighbours to pieces in every possible way.

I don't think it is the "money" that prevents their getting up something as a memorial of this grand and noble event, but a little more unison I am sure would have the desired effect. Several good attempts were made to form a "Committee," but they also fell through. The present arrangement, I understand, is a "tea." "al fresco" for the poor of the town, for which the parents have been asked to subscribe. Is this as it ought to be? The rich ladies have declined to open their purses, on the plea that the times have been very hard, and that their husbands have not been able to make sufficient money. I desire to draw the attention of your readers to this sad state of affairs, and hope they will judge their "paisanos" accordingly.

Yours truly,
Englishman.

LATE U. STATES TELEGRAMS.

The many friends of the Hon. W. J. Buchanan will be glad to know that there is a good probability of his retaining his post as United States Minister during the McKinley administration. A telegram from Washington yesterday stated that the probabilities of Mr. Romualdo Pacheco, of California, being named Minister, were decreasing on account of the action of many influential persons who were urging the President to retain Minister Buchanan.

The Jubilee was celebrated throughout the United States, the English residents being enthusiastically supported and assisted by native Americans. In Boston, the demonstration assumed great proportions, and a magnificent display was made. The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, that was so warmly received on its visit to England a year ago, took the lead in getting up the celebration, which was attended by the British Ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefort, who went out from Washington to take part in the affair. The procession that took place was headed by the local militia and a detachment of blue-jackets from one of the large vessels of the British North Atlantic fleet which were in port.

Considerable comment has been caused throughout the country by the telegram published in the London Times on Monday from M. de Blowitz, its well known Paris correspondent. This gentleman says that a friend of his had a talk with the German Emperor a few days ago on the international outlook, and that the Emperor gave his ideas in the following characteristic declaration: "At present I have no fears of the red or the yellow. Socialism and the Chinese do not occupy my thoughts; but the United States inspires me with fears for the future."

Mr. Calhoun has stated in an interview that he is firmly convinced that the Cuban rebellion will continue for a long time to come, unless something unforeseen occurs. General Woodford is said to be "persona non grata" to the Spanish Government. If this is true, it will further delay any action that President McKinley has decided to take in the Cuban question.

SPORT.

RACING IN THE PARK.

Yesterday's meeting, which was postponed from Sunday last, came off with a good result for the Jockey Club. Although the attendance was a little meagre at the beginning, people flocked in as the races advanced, and when the classic was run there was a fair crowd present. Fields turned up well in most events, and the starting was fair throughout. After Voltigeur was made a hot favourite, to which he faithfully responded, backers went down on Resolvina, a "debutante" who won from a good field. The long distance made backers look bright again as they hit it off with Stamboul. Coming to the classic; only 9 horses faced the starter. Balcarce was made a hot favourite, Pillito figuring as second and Orange as third favourite. After Balcarce had shown the way into the straight he collapsed and Orange made the rest of the race. The next event was an easy win for Tanger, while the Gentlemen Riders' race was pulled off by Redoutable who ran for the second time. The closing event passed off with a rather serious accident for Espoir's rider, who got badly hurt by his horse. Hugonote won the last event.

NOTES AND ANTICIPATIONS.

As the track, thanks to the hard weather, is now in splendid trim again, we may look forward to a fine day's sport and something like reliable form. The classic is the Lawry Stakes for horses and mares, 3 years old and upwards, with penalties and allowances in which 32 inscriptions are still maintained. Of these we are not likely to see more than about a baker's dozen, which should include Blue Boat, Ranquel, Argentino, Rosemary, Mariano, Pergamino, Don Gonzalo, Alacran, Purran, Minerva, Fauvette, Idiota and Pitanga, a nice round lot if all strip, and a puzzler to get at the winner. Blue Boat on his last running will take a very prominent part in the procession, whilst Mariano, Argentino, Ranquel, Alacran and Pitanga cannot he left out of account. The issue will probably be confined to the first three, and until Blue Boat is beaten it will be well to follow him, as he is of a good stout stamp and can both go a pace and stay well. The opening event seems to rest between Orleans and Rodin; Osado and Pompeyo are the pick of the second. Chaipuel will make a very bold bid in the long distance, with Rayon d'Or as an upset candidate. We fancy Plaisanterie in the 2 years old race, and Voladora in the sprint, whilst Anzoletto in the final will have to fight out the issue with Acero. Our selections therefore are:

Nemo	Stakes	Orleans.
Kean	"	Bado.
Lawry	"	Blue Boat.
Blue Boat	"	Chaipuel.
Orange	"	Plaisanterie.
Oriente	"	Voladora.
Oriol	"	Anzoletto or Acero.

THEATRES AND AMUSEMENTS.

H.M.S. PINAFORE.

The second and last performance of this opera was attended by a larger audience than assembled on Monday night, one reason for this being that the numerous proprietary stalls and boxes, which had been placed at the disposal of the Committee too late for sale for the first performance, were readily disposed of for the second.

Unfortunately for the second performance some of the performers had succumbed to the cold weather at present prevailing, and were suffering from throat affections, this being very noticeable in the case of Mr. Magrane, who nevertheless, struggled bravely against it, and sang very well. He was especially good in "I am the Captain" and the duet "Kind Captain I've important information," which was encored. Mr. J. S. Lee as Sir Joseph showed marked improvement in the part, his little bits of bye-play being extremely good. Mr. F. C. Lee was again remarkably good as Dick Deadeye and Mr. Lesslie Wilson was also excellent as Ralph. Mrs. Russell Gregg was another of the afflicted ones, but her first solo "Sorry her lot" was given with great taste and feeling. Mde. de Franc and Miss Thomas were both in good voice and sang well. The hornpipe, well danced by Mr. J. J. Smith, was enthusiastically encored.

At the close of the performance, very handsome baskets of flowers were presented to the lady principals, and Mr. Morgan after a few words referring to the presence of H. E. The President, on Monday night, called for three cheers which were given most heartily.

The performance closed by all joining in singing the National Anthem "God Save the Queen."

Frank Brown's benefit last night was a bumper success. The house was crowded in every part and the popular manager and clown was received with a shout of applause that must have gladdened his heart, and told him, without words, how much he is liked by the Buenos Aires public. He received a perfect multitude of presents, some of them being of the most valuable description.

The season closes to-day, with two performances. At that in the afternoon there will be a free raffle and grand distribution of chocolate to the little ones.

We call attention to the notice in another column of the Barracas Scotch Church Concert to-morrow night. Amongst those taking part is the well known comic singer Mr. Willmott, who will introduce a couple of new songs. Various other good items figure also in the programme.

CONGRESS.

DEPUTIES

Among the business laid yesterday on the table of the House was a Bill for granting $60,000 to Colonel Riccheri as a token of the recognition of his services as head of the European arms' commission. Some difficulties were raised of a Constitutional character, but eventually the Bill was referred to Committee.

The principal business of the day was the unanimous approval by the Chamber of Dr. Davila's revolution that it would be glad to see the Executive take such steps as should ensure the observance of Argentine rights and the protection of her commerce from armed aggression on the part of the Oriental Republic.

Thirty thousand dollars were subsequently voted for the purchase of iron safes for the law-court and some other minor businesss having been transacted the House rose for the day.

LA PLATA

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 23rd

The Deputies met to-day. Deputy Belgrano laid on the table a Bill suspending for 90 days all the provisions of the Drainage Law of December, 1895. The House voted the supplementary credits passed by the Senate, also the subvention to the "Associacion de La Prensa."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Well, ladies and gentlemen, how do you feel after your Jubilee racket? All right? We're delighted to hear it. The best of all news yesterday was that the Grand Old Lady herself went through the whole thing without the slightest sign of fatigue or change in her health. She is a wonderful woman truly, morally and physically. What are the odds that she won't (or she will) yet beat Louis the Fourteenth of France, the "Grand Monarque" (Morally, there was nothing great about him, quite the reverse) and sit on Britain's throne over 72 years? It's a question of 12 years' more, and she has a right good chance of doing it. The rumour about her abdication is all moonshine. Game to the last, she will die with the greatest crown on earth on her venerable head.

The Jubilee celebration was, of course, the great topic in English-speaking circles yesterday. Everything went of splendidly; and there was no hitch here any more than in mighty London, where the wonderful perfection of the organization by the police and other authorities for the unprecedented spectacle has fairly astonished the whole civilized world. In all that vast multitude of millions there were only 1000 accidents, and only 250 were cases for the hospitals. Only 20 soldiers had to fall out of the ranks from sunstroke. The whole thing was a marvel of perfect order; and more than half of it was due to the evident resolve of the millions of people in the streets that nothing on their part should mar the rejoicings of the great day.

Gentlemen of the National Guard of the Capital, turn out! Not to-day, nor to-morrow, but on the glorious 9th prox., when 14,000 of you are to march past the President of the Republic.

It is reported that the Polar bear has escaped from his cage at Palermo and cannot be found. It is supposed that in consequence of the extremely cold weather, the poor animal has fancied himself in his native country, and, not finding any ice in his den, has gone in search of some.

The members of the Lomas Choral Society are specially requested to attend the rehearsal to-night. The last rehearsal at Lomas is fixed for Saturday evening, and the full rehearsal at Prince George's Hall for Sunday afternoon next.

The Jubilee Dance which takes place in Belgrano to-morrow night, under the auspices of the Athletic Club, promises to be a great success. Prof. Pini will wield the baton. A special tramcar for the accomodation of the city folks attending the dance will leave Belgrano (corner of Santa Fé road and Calle Juramento) at 2 a.m. on Saturday morning and run into town.

Among the passengers by the R.M.S. Nile leaving for England to-morrow we notice the name of Mr. Sidney Englefield, whofor some three years past has so ably filled the post of Secretary to the La Capital and other tramways of this city. His wide circle of friends in Quilmes, where he is so deservedly popular, will greatly miss his genial society.

Another holiday! St. John's Day; but there wasn't much of his famed "veranito" in the air yesterday. The event of the day is the formal inauguration of the North Docks by the President of the Republic, to whom they will be formally handed over by Messrs Madero and Co. The ceremony will be a grand one, but only the Cabinet Ministers, Senators and Deputies have been officially invited to it. The several foreign and Argentine war vessels in Dock 4 will add éclat to the ceremony.

We are most happy to say that Consul Baker was cheerful and better yesterday, and there are great hopes of his recovery. Telegrams from England and the United States arrived enquiring for the doyen of the United States Consular Corps. His son, Mr. Willis Baker, desires us to warmly thank the hosts of kind enquirers regarding his father's condition.

The New Chilian Minister, Mr. Walker Martinez, one of Chile's most distinguished diplomatists, presented his credentials to President Uriburu on Tuesday. The speeches were extremely cordial, and Chile and Argentina appear to be now the best friends in the world.

It is our sad duty to record the death of Mr Allen Bower one of the sub-officers of H. M. S. Beagle. On Tuesday night, when returning to his ship, Mr. Bower fell into one of the cellars in course of construction alongside No 3 Dock and must have been killed almost instantaneously. His body was not found till yesterday. In speaking to the Marine Prefect the second in command of the Beagle spoken in high terms of the unfortunate officer's well known character for steadiness and devotion to duty. It is probable that he met with his death by accident; but as no money or valuables were found in his pockets there is just the faintest suspicion of foul play.

Here are some more astonishing coincidences in connection with the lamented Princess Charlotte, and the letter C.:— Her mother's name was Caroline. Her own name Charlotte; that of her consort Coburg, she was married at Cah on House by the Archbishop of Canterbury; her town residence was Connelford House; the owner Lord Connelford was killed in a duel. Her country residence was Claremont, formerly the residence of Lord Clive, who ended his days by suicide. She died in Childbed, the accoucheur being Croft, who, after attending another lady that also died, committed suicide by hanging himself in his own cellar.

When musical pitchforks were first introduced, a certain precentor thought he might be the better of one, and ordered an Edinburgh carrier to bring it. The honest carrier, who never heard of any other pitchfork but that used in the barnyard, purchased one at least ten feet long. It was late on Saturday evening before he came home, and, as a message had been left to bring it up when he came to church next day, he marched into the churchyard before the bell rang, where the master of song was standing among a group of villagers. "Aweel, John, here's the pitchfork you wanted, but I can tell you I ne'er thought muckle o'your singing before, and I'm sair mistaken gin you'll sing any better now."

The Committee of the Babies' Ball wish it to be known that, in order to keep sufficient room for the children in the body of the Hall, it is absolutely necessary that parents and nurses should remain in the galleries. Only the assistants will be allowed in the main hall.

Sunday afternoon the U.S.S. "Castine" came into port and is berthed at Dock 3, though she will probably be moved to Dock 4. She was obliged to wait nearly 24 hours in the outer roads before receiving the visit of the health officer, who steamed past her to visit a merchant vessel which had arrived at a later hour. Some of her officers came on shore rather late in the afternoon and were astonished at the magnitude of the city, and were disappointed at being unable to make a thorough investigation of its attractions for want of a competent guide, without whom they might easily have gone astray in the confusiug maze of the thousands of streets exactly alike.

The holders of the following numbers in yesterday's Lottery were happier than if they had been in London on Tuesday, and seen the unequalled celebration of the Sixty Years' Reign of the First Lady in the World:—17255 $50.000; 18795 $10.000; 4036, 14460 $5000; 19942, 17917, 3711, 9035; 19390, 11838, 11867, 8156, 7335, 4819, 6897, 16102, 13061, 12220 $1000; 20053, 15747, 11513, 20581, 6072, 9302, 4870, 17557, 18175, 13333, 15583, 7402, 8966, 7043, 18737, 17209, 15406, 16843, 9365, 6696 $500; 14660, 10505, 15745, 16907, 9044, 8162, 2889, 17344, 10650, 19583, 20956, 3540, 4287, 5589, 17131, 20329, 16231, 17472, 4559, 2566, 8477, 17833, 18619, 12698, 20370, 1209, 3935, 3775, 13514, 19012, 20110, 16488.

The Victoria Convalescent Home for ever! The preparations for the grand Ball, "The Grand Jubilee Ball", continue on the same gigantic scale. Our esteemed and most worthy friend, Don Adolfo Bullrich has promised every camelia that can be found in his lovely gardens, and other flowers galore; the Intendente has also given instructions that the Municipal gardens are to supply all the plants the Hall will hold, and Mr. Thays, the Director of Parks and Paseos will take charge of the decorations, which will be of a surprising and novel character. Messrs. Basset Freres, the well-known horticulturalists, have offered a magnificent show of hothouse plants in full bloom, whilst our Montevidean friends are sending a special lot of camelias &c. &c to complete the adornment of Prince George's beautiful Hall in the Calle Cuyo. Also the Ministers of the Interior and Finance have signified their intention of attending with their families, and although the invitation list remains open this week, we would remind our subscribers it is as well to send round to the Secretary's Office, Avenida de Mayo 645, as quickly as possible, before the Committee be forced to clap on an extra charge for the remaining tickets.

On Tuesday evening in the "Filip" the principal employés of the Ensenada Railway gave a dinner to the Manager on the occasion of his departure to Europe by the R.M.S Nile to-morrow. Twenty-six were present, and having fared sumptuously, the glasses were duly charged, when Mr. F. R. Fulford proposed the toast of "Our Manager" in eloquent terms, wishing him God speed, pleasant trip, and safe return, which was received by the British element with "For he's a jolly good fellow." Mr. Marengo suitably replying, "Nuestras Pátrias" was then proposed by Mr. Bannatyne, who especially drew attention to the anniversary that day being celebrated in all quarters of the world, and was of course received with "God save the Queen." Dr. Alberto Lopez replied for the Argentine Republic, and Mr Fraser for the British Empire. Then followed Mr. A. J. Avery with a toast for the B. A. and Ensenada Railway in forcible terms, insisting on the vitality of the line, and how such was largely due to the energy and abnegation of Mr. Marengo. Dr A. V. Lopez replied (in the absence of Sr José Toso, who was unfortunately prevented from being present). Then followed various toasts and speeches until a pleasant evening terminated with "Auld Long Syne."

Dear STANLARD,

In your article on our Beloved Queen's Diamond Jubilee you very rightly observe, "No monarch ever enjoyed so high a degree of popular esteem and affection".

May I be permitted to quote some words of Tennyson's, which I think are very applicable just now:

«May all love
His love, unseen, but felt, o'ershadowed Thee
The love of all Thy sons encompass Thee;
The love of all Thy daughters cherish Thee;
The love of all Thy people comfort Thee;
Till God's love set Thee at his side again.»

Yours truly
E. J. Altman.

We must again beg our contributors, "ante et post", of Jubilee literature to pardon us if we have not published all their notes, comments, anticipations, and retrospections. It has been and is absolutely impossible for us to find space for them, in spite of our best efforts to do so.

The latest news from the other side of Jordan about Dr. Sanarelli and his yellow fever bacillus is that Dr. Quesada, who offered himself as a victim, is already suffering from a lesion of the liver, the result of a previous experiment with the cholera microbe, which would make any attack of yellow fever specially dangerous to him, and probably fatal.

Our esteemed little contemporary the Campana, of Campana, had an eloquent leader on Sunday last, dedicated to "Queen Victoria and the British People;" and all the loyal Britishers in that little town are, naturally, delighted with it.

The Swiss Beneficent Society have organized a "Tiro al Flobert" for to-morrow, Sunday and Tuesday next at 1231 Calle Cordoba, for the benefit of their distressed countrymen in Santa Fé, who have been ruined by the loss of the harvest. It promises to be a most successful affair. The following ladies and gentlemen form the Committee:—Señora Herminia Aiemann, Señora Alice Lewy-Levaillant, Sr. Daniel Tannaz, Señor Federico Nippel, Sr. Eduardo Ramseyer.

FIRST RING..... 195.50
SECOND RING..... 195.20

The month is gliding by, the liquidation is now well within hail, but still there is no sign of any move in the market, not even the twitch in the facial muscles that would precede the disturbing elements coming into conflict. The bulls gained a momentary advantage in hoisting the opening rate at 296, but it was so very shortlived that almost without an effort the price fell back to close at 295.50 sellers, being done after the hour at 295.20. For dates there is total lack of interest. Stocks were very quiet, and the ring and hall almost deserted, the monotony of business having tired out patience all round. In the hall a little politics is talked, and there were rumours of a fresh failure, said to be important, but things are just dead slow and will keep so right on till about August. The sharp, clear weather has had a good effect on spirits (non-alcoholic) by dispelling anxiety on the locust head, as, if it keeps on, the plague will be driven back and held off till too late to do any harm, to the wheat at least. The outlook was not promising in this regard. With the damp, mild weather the locusts had come on in large arrays, a Macedonian phalanx being reported in the neighbourhood of Concepcion del Uruguay, whilst in other districts of Entre Rios and Santa Fé they were also pretty thick and bad, but the frosts will soon clear them out effectually and do a deal of good in general by killing off the numberless parasites engendered by a soft, unnatural temperature. The estancieros are all doing splendidly, reporting camps in first rate order and stock fat, well able to stand and take the advantage of a spell of bracing cold, so that things on the whole could not be working out better than at present. Business is slow in general, and that is the only unhealthy feature.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

A great success was scored by the South Australian Government issue of 3 per cent. inscribed stock, to which we alluded in a recent issue. The million sterling asked for was subscribed for nearly five times over, the tenders varying from the minimum of £95 up to £98 10s. A syndicate which tendered for a large block at £96 16s 6d will only receive about 9.8 per cent. of the amount it applied for, although the price put in was nearly two per cent. above the fixed minimum. The average price obtained for the stock was £97 13s 8d, and the Colony is to be congratulated on the reception accorded to the loan.

Mr. John A. Green, a commissioner of a large body of citizens of Orlando, Oklahama, U.S.A., to study and report upon the Plate as a settling ground, has just arrived out in pursuance of his mandate. If suitable conditions are offered for the starting of a colony, the Oklahamans will come out to farm on a large scale, and Mr. Green tells us there are no paupers in the crowd. The commissioner has his certificates duly viséd, and seems much disappointed that the Goverment does not give free land grants. We have frequently called the Executive's attention to this point, as the restrictive clause of citizenship renders the Homestead Law null and void; but whether it be due to National intolerance, which does not seem at all likely, considering the liberal nature of all other Argentine legislation, or to indifference, the fact remains that Argentine colonies exist in name only. If the provisions of the law were modified so as to compel citizenship only after a certain lapse of time (say before receiving title-deeds), the way would be much easier. It is a pity the National Government does not take a more liberal attitude in this respect, as every day parties arrive out with a view to colonizing large areas which they subsequently find are not available except on purchase, and we are sick and tired answering letters from all parts of same tenor. Some enterprising provincial Government might take advantage of the National indolence to advance its interests, as there is no lack of waste lands, but a perfect famine of capital and labour.

As the shortage of this season's clip in comparison with that of 1895-6 has been called in question, based on the fact that with the use of hydraulic presses, the bales of this season contained more wool, Messrs. Staudt and Co. have taken up the cudgels and pointed out that this use of hydraulic presses is only in force in a few barracas in this city and not elsewhere, so that the difference on this head would be amply compensated by a 5% addition. To get at the total of the season's clip, Messrs Standt and Co. deduct from the exports 3½ million kilos remained over from previous clip, and then give the totals thus:

	Kilos.
Clip 1896-7.....	195 060,000
„ 1895-6	196,800,000

This shews a shortage of 1,740,000 kilos or say 4000 bales, but as the exports this year embrace the balance of 1895-6 above alluded to, with shortage and all, we have exported more wool.

In our editorial columns will be found an article on report of the U. States Trades' Commissioners to this country, which has been looked forward to with so much interest. The Commission was much pooh-poohed in the press here, as not calculated to lead up to any positive results, but there can be little doubt of its having directed a good deal of interest and opinion in the States to this country, as we can gather from the frequent allusions to the Plate in the N. American press.

There was no fresh financial news from Chile to-day, and things seem to have settled down apparently for the moment, though it is not to be supposed that the mere amalgamation of a couple of banks can appease a formidable crisis. We understand that the Government is formulating, or at least meditating, a general moratorium, which will have the effect of a hypodermic injection of morphine, aggravating the disorder; though this idea may be abandoned when the new Cabinet is formed, according as the principles of the new Ministers incline towards radical cure or alleviation. The upshot of the situation, however, is pointing very clearly to a return to inconversion as inevitable, The Conversion pill is a salutary one, but has its drawbacks, mainly the necessity of a very solid, vigorous digestion, to work easily.

The Bolsa was yesterday the scene of a very spontaneous, gratifying and effusive manifestation of sympathy towards the Brisish community in connection with the Jubilee celebration. In their usual genial way the brokers considering it "infra-dig" that any English members of the fraternity should transact business on such a memorable occasion, absolutely prevented them from doing anything, so that the operations had to be effected through other channels, and when the ring closed then the fun began. Mr. Mullally mounted on a buttress, led off with a call for 3 cheers for Her Majesty, which was unanimously responded to; and then with the echoes still ringing, Mr. Blagden set "God Save the Queen" going. Everyone in the place chimed in with such enthusiasm and vigour that the chorus could be heard at the statue of Liberty in the Plaza de Mayo. The demonstration was as gratifying as it was unexpected, shewing the great sympathy that exists for the English community in all circles. It was a fitting corrollary to the celebration card.

Nat. Cedulas B.—29¾.
Do do C.—29¼.
Do do F.—28¼.
1892 Bonds—25.
Fundings — 87¾.

A bare quarter million dollars summed up the total of the second hour's gold business, with a moiety for cash and the paltry balance for dates. Rates shewed practically no change, opening at 295 and closing at 295.20. Stocks were as usual slack, very little movement in anything and rates nominal.

The salient note of the commercial crisis is a letter from Mr. Paats, one of the fathers of B. Aires commerce, to the Centro de Comercio, in which his opinions as to the causes of the crisis are very succinctly set forth. We need scarcely say that these opinions merit the very deepest consideration, coming from such a source, as there is, perhaps, no one in the market with such mature experience of all its phases as our Dutch Consul-General, who has grown gray in harness as one of the most respected and foremost merchants of this city. After detailing as the prime factor in the crisis the succession of short harvests with its chain of losses linking back to the B. Aires wholesale houses, Mr. Paats dwells on the abuse of credit, which he points out as amply demonstrated in houses with 50 or 100 thousand dollars capital, presenting their balance-sheets to the Bankruptcy Court with lists of creditors to as much as 500,000 or 1,000,000 dollars. The old houses of solid capital have been able to stay off the squeeze by keeping their stocks in deposit and realizing by degrees, but others not in these conditions have had to realize at ruinous prices and heavy loss. Another point touched on is the damage done to steady trading by foreign agents, who without any responsibility and having little or no expense to bear, were able to sell cheaply, as they gave the buyer the benefit of the office and deposit rent, taxes and employés, wages charged by the regular houses, and in this way upset business considerably. The prices were cut down in this way to a very narrow margin and we may say that many important retail firms dealt with these agents direct, induced by the favorable nature of the conditions offered. But what has been the result? When a big retail dealer was in temporary difficulties formerly he could and did go to the wholesale firm to arrange for a postponement or renewal, but treating with the agents, of course, this was impossible as the agents could do nothing without reference to their principals in Europe, who would, not knowing the circumstances of the case, nine times out of ten send a blank negative. This has been actually the cause of many a house having to apply for a moratorium which, had it dealt with its old firms, would have been avoided. We regret not being able to give Mr. Paats' views "in extenso", as they are interesting and reliable. We note that he very wisely opines that the remedy to the crisis has to come of itself—nature's corrective. It will be noted that repeatedly we have advanced in these columns opinions couched in more or less the same strain as to the origin of the trade depression and it is very satisfactory to find them backed up by such a competent authority as Mr. Paats.

A TERRIBLE COUGH.

"94 Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12th

"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. HILL."

I often suffer from Chronic Bronchitis; your Lozenge is the only remedy which gives me immediate ease. Therefore I certainly and most strongly recommend your Lozenges to the public who may suffer from Catarrh, Bronchitis, Winter Cough, or any kind of Pulmonary Irritation.—Yours truly.
